“ When I became a Furman in 1988, I also became a Brickman...and a Glazman... (among others).
Uncle Jimmy was certainly among the top of the "best new relatives" list! He always had a smile, a laugh, a story to share, a PASSION for his sweet wife, Aunt Mickey, (may she rest in peace), and a passion for LIFE itself!
Uncle Mickey and his dear brother-in-law, Nort, (my father-in-law, who passed away in 2005), entertained one another for decades. Each of us lucky enough to know Jimmy Glazman can attest to the fact that they were never without a good belly laugh when Jimmy was around. My family welcomed him and Aunt Mickey into our own family quite readily, as my dad, (who passed away earlier this year) fit right into the fold.
My cheeks ache now as I realize I've been smiling the entire time I've been writing this little memory.
Jimmy Glazman was one of a kind - a mensch, a delightfully wonderful human being, and left with us a light that will shine forever in each of our hearts and souls. I know you are dancing again with your lovely wife, and laughing again with Nort and so many others.
We will miss you dearly. And love you always.

“ Jimmy was all about love, fun. Temple, acting, family. We loved stopping on our way out of town for Vienna bread (which never made it to Hinkley), challah and pumpernickel rolls. Jimmy was always good for a hug and a story or joke. We loved him.

“ Goodbye to a real mensch! Jimmy and Mickey were fixtures in our lives growing up. Whenever he would see me when he was driving around in the European Bakery truck, he would always stop, chat and give me a wonderful "care-package" of my favorite fresh baked goods. Jimmy was definitely a one of a kind! I don't think I've ever known anyone who was as quick as he was with a story or a joke that came to him as a result of what was being discussed in a conversation. Always funny, always informative, never just talk for the sake of talk. He was a teacher in the best sense of the word. Our families were very close, particularly in my younger days, and I'd always look forward to a visit and a meal at the Glazmans, or a visit by them to our home for the same. He called my mom (Idy Garon) "vilda chia (sp?)" which he told me literally translated as "wild animal", but he used it in the sense of his admiration for her forthrightness and for her being her own person. He was definitely also that kind of person.

I will always remember him with the deepest fondness! I, as so many, will miss his quick wit and his stories - he was always a pleasure to be around. And he will always be in my heart.

My deepest sympathies go out to Barbara and Marty as well as their families.

With sincere love for a great man, David Garon
