“ My sincere and deepest condolences. Lillian (and Max) were most certainly among a small special group of my Mother and Father's Dearest Friends; and of course the special bond thru my Dad's Sister; my Auntie Ethel and Uncle Saul. Now all of blessed memory.
May thoughts of happy times and fond memories ultimately overtake the sorrow of this moment. On a personal note Max was my favorite Talmud Torah teacher and I spent much time over at their house learning my Bar Mitzvah. I can still smell his pipe. Lillian was always so kind to me. I will never forget her.

“ I am so saddened to see this obituary. The loss of Max, and now Lil, are great losses to the family and community. They were both wonderful people who brought joy to everyone around them. My parents felt a special bond to both of them, and I had such fondness for both too. I am so very sorry for your loss. May your wonderful memories sustain you during this time of grief. “ I am so sorry to hear this. I cannot remember a more wonderful woman. I spoke with her after Max died. He went to school with my mom. Such wonderful memories, of your tuna sandwiches and playing with Karen when we were neighbors. Such a good, sweet person, RIP, and my condolences to the entire family. I loved her a lot.

“ It's very hard to say goodbye when someone we love has to die
Whether age or illness has wrinkled the face
'N we assume they're in a better place
Warmth 'n Sympathies are sent today
In the hopes that they may
Ease the pain you now bear
Knowing there are those who care.
