

Marion Bans

February 18, 1921 - August 8, 2017

Marion Bans, age 96, of St. Paul, passed away on August 8, 2017. She was preceded in death by her husband, Fred Bans; parents, Louis and Rebecca Greenberg; brothers-in-law, George Fudenberg, William Hurvitz, Seymour Bans; sisters-in-law, Idelle Levey, Edith Hurvitz, Eleanor Thompson; and aunt and uncle, Dan and Rose Greenberg. Survived by her sons, Charles Bans (Sally) and Larry Bans; grandchildren, Jenna Bans (Justin Spitzer), Lauren Bans (Keith Staskiewicz), Alissa Bans, Angela (Ryan) Roa, and Steven (Allison) Bans; great-grandchildren, Carter, Zachary, Brady, Lucy, and Phoebe; sister, Betty Fudenberg; brother-in-law, John Levey; daughter-in-law, Debbie Bans Glassman; and many other loving relatives and friends including her close friend for over 90 years, Mildred Ingber. Dubbed "Gaga" over forty years ago by her first grandchild, the name stuck and her relatives and many close friends only addressed her as Gaga. She was well known as a master chef and baker and her recipes were often requested by those she hosted on numerous occasions. Gaga always wore a smile and was a true optimist at heart. Gaga will be truly missed by her family and all those who knew her. Graveside service THURSDAY, 3:00pm, WEST SIDE HEBREW CEMETERY, 1250 Barclay St., St. Paul. Donations to donor's favorite charity. “ Dear family,
Your mother was my mother's best friend.
That being said she had always been a part of my life. From my earliest memories as a wild child jumping on the beds to constantly calling to catch up. Speaking to her made me feel close to my mother and like I still had one. My heart goes out to the world because a truly unique and special woman has passed.
She will remain in my heart forever.
