“ I remember confusing Aunt Millie with my mother, they looked so identical. Warm, fond memories of our trip to Minneapolis when I was 7. It was a happy, innocent time and so much fun playing with my cousins. Aunt Millie was like my mother and I enjoyed visiting her in Portland several years ago. She told it like it was. Didn't hold back. I remember her as a smart lady, sweet aunt, loving sister to her siblings, good neighbor and I'm sure an awesome mother to DAVID, DEBORAH and Robert. May her memory be a blessing.

“ Debbie, I remember well being at your house when we were grade schoolers, looking through your mom's romance novels, and on warm days she would be out in a chaise lounge worshipping the sun. She was always very kind to me. May she rest in peace, and hugs to you, I wish i could be there. Barb

“ I loved Aunt Millie. I remember her sitting at the kitchen table with my mother and smiling, sharing coffee and a cigarette before they all realized how unhealthy it was and quit.. Remember those days? When I was little I mistook her for my mother. It's not only that they looked alike, but I felt close to her too. She was always very kind to me. Love, Karen

I would get mixed up with our mothers when I was little, too! They were so dearly loved by all of us. Thank you, Karen.
