“ Some of my first memories are of the sleep-overs upstairs on Hague Ave where I always felt still within the loving arms of my family. I remember that I could wake up Auntie Peggy at any time of the night to let her know I wet the bed...with shame, but without fear of an angry or frustrated reaction on her part. As I approach the era of bed wetting again, I will expect nothing less than this Auntie Peggy treatment from my care givers.

“ To family and loved ones of Peggy's:

I had the privilege of being Peggy's doula for end of life during the past couple of months. What a lovely spirit she was! She cared so deeply for her family, she told me many stories of her daughters, grandchildren and Dax. She missed Hazel very much and said that she was the best sister in the world. Peace to all of you in this loss.

“ So sorry for your loss! This is Lori Chase.....when my mom died, Peggy sent these most beautiful words. hope they will be as welcome to you as they were to me eleven years ago.....
How sad it is to say goodbye
When someone you love has to die
Whether age or illness has wrinkled the face
And assume they're in a better place
Warmth and Sympathies are sent today
In the hopes that they may
Ease the pain you now bear
Knowing there are those who care

“ Peggy took my under her wing years ago when I joined Temple of Aaron and the B'nai Brith bowling league (also with Wendy and Vicki). I loved that she was always authentic and sometimes a little mischievous! I will always remember that twinkle in her eye and how sweet she was to me. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ To Peggy's family...I am so sorry for your loss...This is David Morris and from my several years of leading Shabbat services several times a month, I got to know Peggy and she was just so lovely. We spoke on the phone a number of times. Peggy was a very special "Shalom Home friend." We really had a click and I so enjoyed talking with her. Before Covid I brought her several meals from her favorite restaurants.

It's been so hard to not know what is happening with the folks at Shalom Home because I can't be around there to lead services...Hopefully, it won't be long...

You were so blessed to have Peggy in your lives and I know you will miss her terribly. She had this wonderful smile and such a dry, sharp wit...I will miss her along with you...A most wonderful woman!

Most sincerely, David Morris
