“ Many fond and humorous memories of Sy as I worked with him and for him in the lighting business.
Glad I was able to see him in good spirits a few years ago in NY.

“ Marty, sorry to hear about your dad. I remember all the great times we had with Sandy so many years ago.

My condolences to your family and remember to think of all the good things about your dad.

“ Sy became one of my closest friends when we met in the lighting business back in the mid 90's. One of my first memories of him was a ditty he sang about being the lamp guy. We went to China together in 2004, so he could show me how to start importing. I think he was 80 when we went, and he would do his calisthenics daily like he did during his time in WWII. Besides his knee bothering him, he looked and acted 20 years younger than his age. He was an amazing honorable man that loved to talk about all his children. He loved big band music and talked about it as if it were still in vogue. We even spent a lot of hours talking about his time fighting in WWII under Patton, however, he never gave specifics on the gore. He is absolutely one of my favorite people in the world and I will miss him terribly. G_d was ever so gracious to me and my family to get to know him.

G_d rest his soul.

“ I meet Sy at the Bayville library several years ago. I enjoyed Sy's company greatly; learning about his interesting work life and WWII Service. Sy was a great man, a patriot, and made the world a much better place. My condolences to the entire Mayerson family!!!

RIP my dear friend Sy!
